Martin Shapiro, poet, &c., has sent us his pet aversion. Others have sent theirs, too, but to-day Martin gets the double-jointed apple pis. Here's his: tion is made in the contracts of the stars to the affect that they shall appear tegether in the play only in New York. It is stated that Miss Harrymore's health is now fully restored. "Clair de Lune" will be presented in New York in April, without Lyall Swete will direct the re-

"MAD LOVE" JUST AHEAD. Lew Fields is preparing to produce musical comedy called "Mad Love. Frances Nordstrom has written the book and lyrios and Harry Von Tilzer the music. "Mad Love," eh? Gosh, guess we'll have to go!

"CY" PRELL BURIED.

The funeral of Cyrus D. Preli, manager of "Spanish Love," at Maxine Elliott's Theatre, and widely known and respected in the theatrical world, was hald yesterday from his home, No. 118 West Tist Street. The pall-bearers were James Rennie, William Powel, Edward Mordant, George Backus, Frank Peters and Thomas Cooks. Mr. Prell died Monday.
